FRANK VOLLRATH DEAD

HE DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART TROUBLE AT HOME SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

WAS UP TOWN TWICE DURING FORENOON

The Rev. Douglass Atwill Conducted Funeral Services This Afternoon—Burial at Booneville Tomorrow.

Frank Vollrath, local agent for the Mutual Life and the John Hancock Insurance companies, and one of Sedalia's best known citizens, died suddenly of heart trouble at his home, 1009 South Osage avenue, at 1:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Vollrath went to Jefferson City last Monday to witness the inauguration of Governor Hadley. While there he contracted a severe cold, and, on returning home, complained of pains in his left arm and side.

He made two trips up town Sunday forenoon, the first to get the day's mail and the second for medicine for the cold, returning home from the last trip about 11:15 o'clock. At that time he complained of severe pains in his chest.

Miss Emma Vollrath, a sister, returned from church about 12:15 o'clock and was told by Mr. Vollrath of the suffering he was enduring, the pain being so severe that the patient continually walked the floor.

Shortly after 1 o'clock Mr. Vollrath sat in a chair by the dining room table, and remarked to his sister that everything was getting black before him. She assisted him to a couch adjacent and hurried to the home of her sister, Mrs. S. R. Hain, a few doors away, but when she returned the patient had not moved in the least.

Dr. A. H. Eaton was hurriedly summoned and administered strychnine to revive the heart action, and Dr. E. A. Wood was then summoned, but life was already extinct, merely two mild beats of the heart having been felt after the arrival of the first physician.

Mr. Vollrath was a widower and 58 years old. His wife died exactly three years ago today, while his mother died just two years ago today. He was a member of Calvary Episcopal church and held membership in the Odd Fellows.

A more genial gentleman than Frank Vollrath never lived in the Queen City. He was kind and sympathetic, always ready to extend a helping hand to those in need and many will read of his sudden demise with deepest sorrow.

The Rev. D. H. Atwill conducted funeral services at Calvary church at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be taken to Booneville, deceased's old home, tomorrow morning, where interment will be made.

The following served as pallbearers: D. H. Smith, Charles C. Evans, A. D. Stanley, Walter Morey, J. W. Mellor and H. R. Camp.

MISSOURI PACIFIC WRECK

St. Louis Fast Express Was Ditched Sunday Night.

Pueblo, Colo., Jan. 18.—Missouri Pacific passenger train known as the St. Louis fast express, which leaves here at 6:05 p. m., was wrecked near Boone, twenty-six miles east of here, about 7 o'clock last night.

According to a telephone message received here, no one was killed or seriously injured. Of the four slightly hurt one is Miles Harvey, of Iowa, Kas., who sustained a strained back.

The engine and express car were hurled from a bridge over an arroyo and the engine men had miraculous escapes.

THE "SORE ARM" RACKET

It Has Been Worked to a Frazzle on People of Sedalia.

The police Sunday detected a scheme whereby Sedalians in general have been victimized by beggars, and which will likely diminish the extent of beggary in the city. As a result Frank Sullivan, an itinerant, is lodged in quarters in the city jail, serving a 100-days jail sentence, administered by Judge Gresham this morning.

Sullivan was arrested yesterday for begging in the city. He was given a "sweating" process by Chief Boult and told how his plan worked.

The beggar scratches his hand with a needle or pin, and then applies concentrated lye, after which he covers the wound with pure vaseline, which makes the injury retain its soreness.

This wound the beggar displays to his victim and generally is given assistance.

Likely to Succeed Rev. Parsons.

The members of the First Congregational church will meet at the lecture room at the church Wednesday night to consider the acceptance of Rev. Harold Cooper, of Ironton, O., as pastor of the church, succeeding the Rev. James Parsons, resigned.

Rev. Cooper occupied the pulpit both last Sunday and the preceding Sunday, and all were well pleased with his discourses.

WAS REARED IN PETTIS

MRS. L. J. EZELL, WHO WAS KILLED IN D. & R. G. COLLISION FRIDAY NIGHT.

HUSBAND AND DAUGHTER BADLY INJURED

Mr. Ezell Was Formerly Engaged in Merchandising at Beaman—The Family Was Removing to California.

Mrs. Sarah Ezell, who was killed in the Denver and Rio Grande collision near Doseros, Colo., Saturday night, was the wife of L. J. Ezell, who for several years was engaged in general merchandising at Beaman. Mrs. Geo. W. Spears, who lives twelve miles north of Sedalia, and is the wife of a prominent farmer and stockman, is a sister, and Benj. Burford, five miles from Hughesville, is a brother.

Seven years ago Mr. and Mrs. Ezell removed from Beaman to Williston, North Dakota, with their four children. Recently they decided to remove to California, and two weeks ago they came here with their 8-year-old daughter, Margaret, for a visit. They left last Wednesday for the Pacific coast.

Mr. Ezell is about 60 years of age and his wife was 51.

A telegram from Glenwood Springs thus describes the injuries of Mr. Ezell and his daughter: L. J. Ezell, Williston, N. D., internal injuries, multiple contused wounds; condition serious.

Margaret Ezell, Williston, N. D., large lacerated wounds, left leg, and lacerated wound left arm, contusion of neck.

THEFT OF CHICKENS

John Laxton and Alonzo Huland Were Arrested.

John Laxton and Alonzo Huland were arrested Sunday by Chief of Police Boult and Constable Kahrs, on suspicion of having stolen chickens from J. H. Dozier, 509 Jackson street, Saturday night.

They denied their guilt until they were "sweated" at police headquarters, where they confessed.

Dozier's chicken coop was visited Saturday night and about nine fowls were stolen, the thieves wringing the chickens' necks and leaving the heads on Dozier's premises.

Both are having their preliminary hearing before Judge Rickman this afternoon.

BIG FINE WILL STICK

Supreme Court Affirmed the Texas Court's Decision in Oil Case.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The supreme court of the United States today affirmed the decree of the Texas courts in imposing a fine of $1,623,000 on the Waters Pierce Oil company, of St. Louis, and ousting it from the state on the charge of violating the Texas anti-trust law.

The Old Flat Wheel Again.

"Bob" Hammer's old flat car wheel is again doing duty for the Sedalia Light and Traction Co. It is on one of the cars that traverses Ohio avenue and other thoroughfares a good many times during the day and night. Haven't you heard its awful clatter? If not, either your hearing must be impaired or you live many blocks from the car line. The Democrat-Sentinel was in hopes that the old flat wheel had been sidetracked for eternity. Not so, however. It's a nuisance, good and plenty, and should be abolished.

UP A TREE

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

TRUSTEES FOR SACRED HEART CHURCH WERE NAMED SUNDAY FORENOON.

ALTAR SOCIETY ALSO HELD AN ELECTION

At the Same Time the Young Ladies' Sodality Chose Those Who Are to Fill Respective Positions During Year.

The members of Sacred Heart church met last Sunday after the late service and elected the following gentlemen to serve as trustees during the present year:

Messrs. E. G. Cassidy, Joseph Lennartz, Joseph Dickman, James P. Quinn, Charles Gelven and L. R. Archibald.

A vote of thanks was given the trustees for their efficient work in the past, in managing the financial affairs of the congregation so successfully.

The members of the Altar society, consisting of the married ladies of Sacred Heart church, met Sunday after the vespers service to elect the officers for the current year. The result of the election was as follows:

President—Mrs. Pat Curran.
Vice president—Mrs. Hattie Adams.
Secretary—Mrs. Mary Loos.
Treasurer—Mrs. Jennie DeBolt.

This society is organized to take care of the altar of Sacred Heart church, securing vestments, candles, flowers, etc.

In the past year the society spent almost $300 in beautifying the church and has been of material assistance to the congregation.

The young ladies of the Sodality of Sacred Heart church met Sunday afternoon and elected the following officers to serve the ensuing year:

Prefect—Clara Meier.
Assistant prefect—Emma Keller.
Secretary—Mary Katzer.
Treasurer—Emelia Dorn.
Consultors—Lillie Riley, Ida Lennartz, Lillie O'Connor, Ida Lorschach, Nellie Donnelly, Anna Redding.

FIVE TOWNS WITHOUT GAS

As the Result of a Break Near Ottawa, Kas., Sunday.

Ottawa, Kas., Jan. 18.—An explosion that was heard half a dozen miles put out of service the pipe line that supplies Lawrence, Topeka, Leavenworth, Atchison, St. Joseph and several intermediate towns with natural gas. The explosion occurred at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. No damage was done to the pipe line system that carries gas to the two Kansas cities.

"Jim" Kidd Heard From.

James K. Kidd, the old side-partner of "Doc" Combs in the manufacture of "Germox," and who "does" real estate, loans coin and trades in numerous ways on the side, writes to a member of the Democrat-Sentinel staff as follows from Los Angeles, Cal., under date of January 13:

"Friend Ed: Having fine time. Enjoying beautiful California. Weather like summer. Flowers in bloom everywhere. Oranges ripe, and all these good things certainly look good to me. Not used to such luxuries. Paper comes little irregularly, but is at ways enjoyed. Best wishes."

KATY FLYER IS WRECKED

ENGINEER AND FOUR ITALIAN LABORERS ARE REPORTED KILLED.

IS SAID NOT A PASSENGER WAS INJURED

Five Mail Clerks Hurt, One of the Number Being George F. Tuley, Who Formerly Resided in This City.

Beagle, Kan., Jan. 18.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas flyer, north-bound, split a switch here at 11 o'clock last night and was derailed.

The engineer, John Cowden, of Parsons, is believed to have been killed, although his body has not been found. The engine ran into a string of bunk cars in which Italian section laborers were sleeping. Four of the Italians were killed and several of them were injured.

The fireman, whose name is Weidlich, was dangerously injured. His home is in Parsons.

The side of the mail car was torn off and five mail clerks, all of whom live in Kansas City, were slightly injured. Their names follow: Colonel Davenport, Homer Marlin, Herbert Potter, Geo. Tuley and Andrae Dunlop. None of the passengers was injured.

The wife of Cowden, the engineer, was a passenger in the chair car.

Beagle, Kan., is in Miami county. The wrecked train was due in Kansas City at 11:59 o'clock last night.

STONE VERY CONFIDENT

SENIOR UNITED STATES SENATOR THINKS IT'S ALL OVER BUT THE VOTING.

DEMOCRATS SAY ITS SMOOTH SAILING

Doesn't Seem to Be Any Question But What the Joint Assembly Will Return Present Incumbent to Washington

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Jefferson City, Jan. 18.—Despite the frantic efforts being made by the anti-Stone agencies in St. Louis in an effort to stir up trouble which might be reflected in Jefferson City, thereby delaying the balloting on United States senator, the universal opinion here today is that the re-election of William J. Stone is merely a matter of the ticking off of the seconds until Wednesday noon.

All is quiet here today, and it is doubtful if there will be a quorum present when the joint assembly is called to order at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Most of the members, however, will arrive tonight to be on hand for the balloting in the two houses tomorrow.

The wild stories of fraud in the St. Louis precincts are universally regarded here as the dying gasps of those who have sought to encompass Senator Stone's defeat by means of trickery and delay.

Speaker Speer, who at first was of the opinion that the senatorial election could not take place at this time on account of the fact that the senate has not yet been furnished with its permanent presiding officer is now known to have arrived at the conclusion that the organization is sufficiently complete as contemplated in the statute requiring the senatorial election to be held on the second Tuesday after the organization. The only difficulty that could possibly arise now would come as a result of pairing, and this danger is removed by the prompt warning issued by the democratic steering committee to its paired members that they notify the opposite parties to the pairing agreement that they will be present tomorrow and vote to make a quorum.

Eighty-nine members of the assembly must be present and voting to make a quorum in the joint assembly. The democrats have seven votes to spare on joint ballot, not counting Representative Allen. Allen, who, although ill, notified Senator Stone's advisers yesterday that he would come to Jefferson City should his vote be needed.

No trouble, however, is anticipated, and Senator Thomas Lane, of Doniphan, fittingly summed up the situation when he said this morning: "It is only a matter of waiting till the clock ticks off the intervening minutes between the present and 12 o'clock, noon, Wednesday."

No difficulty whatever will arise. There will be enough votes and to spare to elect Senator Stone on the first ballot when the joint assembly convenes Wednesday at 12 o'clock.

Senator Stone himself is confident that the will of the majority of the people of Missouri, as expressed at the primary will avail, and he is planning to leave Jefferson City on Wednesday night for Washington.

ROASTS THE PRESIDENT

CONGRESSMAN WILLETT, OF NEW YORK, BITTERLY ATTACKED ROOSEVELT'S RECORD.

CALLED HIM GARGOYLE AND PIGMY

Said He Tries the Patience of the American People—House Finally Withdraws Permission to Speak.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Characterizing President Roosevelt as a Gargoyle and as "This pigmy descendant of Dutch trading people," and charging him with having "established a court in the White House which would have delighted the heart of his idol, Alexander Hamilton," Congressman Willett, of New York, in the house today made one of the most bitter attacks on the chief executive ever heard in that body.

Mr. Willett took for his theme, "The Passing of Roosevelt," and in a speech of great length reviewed numerous of the presidential acts since he came into office and scathingly denounced them.

After declaring that in face of all sorts of conditions the American people were possessed of a universal sense of humor, Willett said that to such a people, "It must be confessed a chief magistrate who has himself no sense of humor, moving like a horse tender over the hayfield of American activities, stirring up every drying blade of once green grass, to let it fall drier than before, quarreling one day with practical politicians, then with the part-your-hair-in-the-middle reformers, then with socialists, then with the great industrial corporations, wrestling in agony of spirit with Noah Webster and our glorious English tongue, taking a fall out of nature fakers, exhorting our women to avoid race suicide, cannot be an unmixed nuisance.

"He tries our patience, but he is always good to laugh at. Thank heaven for the things that make us laugh."

Takes Him Off the Floor. In the midst of his speech the house, by a vote of 78 to 16, denied Willett the privilege of continuing his attack, and he was compelled to stop before finishing half of what he intended to say.

"JACK" HALSTEAD TO LEAVE

He Departs This Week for the Lone Star State.

"Jack" Halstead, local inspector for the Bell Telephone company, will leave this week for Texas, where he will accept a better position in a similar line of business.

His severance with the telephone company was necessitated by reason of the abolishment of that position when orders were issued from the company's headquarters to reduce expenses throughout the entire system.

Mr. Halstead is a young man who is thoroughly competent in every respect, and he will no doubt attain in the Lone Star state the success which he won and retained in this city.

Rev. Brady's First Service.

The Rev. Cyrus T. Brady conducted his first service at St. George's Episcopal church in Kansas City Sunday morning, and the Times says "he stirred them." In fact, says the Times, "his manner was so earnest and forceful that it got hold of the large audience that heard him."

THE M. W. OF A. LOSES SUIT

MRS. WOLFGRAM GETS VERDICT AGAINST THE ORDER AT HANNIBAL, MO.

WILL GET SUM OF $1,000 FOR A DEATH

Husband Held Insurance in Modern Woodmen of America and Was Killed While Employed As a Brakeman.

Hannibal, Mo., Jan. 18.—The most interesting case tried in the common pleas court during the present term was disposed of last Friday. It was the case of Lenora Wolfram against the Modern Woodmen of America, being a suit to collect an insurance policy which the deceased's husband carried in the order, the policy being $1,000.

The husband of the plaintiff was a member of Hannibal camp No. 2129. His insurance policy was for $1,000, on which he paid a monthly assessment of 40 cents.

At the time he joined the order he was a common laborer, but afterwards entered the employ of the Burlington as brakeman on freight trains.

He was advised by the clerk of the local camp that railroading was considered a hazardous occupation, and that if he wished to insure against accidents that might result in death he would be compelled to pay a higher rate.

He neglected, however, to have his policy changed and continued in the employ of the Burlington until December 12th, 1906, when he met with an accident in the railroad yards in St. Louis which resulted fatally and he died the next day.

On the day he met with the accident he purchased a little tin horse in St. Louis for his child, intending it for a Christmas present. This seemed to bear on his mind, and he told one of his friends that if he died to be sure to bring the little toy to Hannibal and give it to his child.

A reporter for one of the St. Louis papers heard of the incident and wrote a poem on it, which was published in a number of other papers in the state.

After the death of Mr. Wolfram the Modern Woodmen refused to pay the insurance policy, on the grounds that the deceased, at the time he met with the fatal accident, was engaged in an occupation more hazardous than was the occupation in which he was engaged at the time he was insured, and as he was not paying a hazardous rate of insurance he had forfeited all the rights and privileges of the policy according to the provisions of the policies and the by-laws of the order.

Notwithstanding these facts, the order continued to receive and accept the monthly assessments of the deceased, and according to the provisions contained in the policy, had he died a natural death the insurance policy would have been held good and would have been paid without question.

After the order had positively refused to pay the policy the widow, Mrs. Lenora Wolfram, instituted suit against the order in the common pleas court for the collection of the policy.

The jury was out only 30 minutes and returned a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount sued for, $1,000, and $36 interest.

ONE DEAD; 29 INJURED

Rock Island Passenger Train Runs Into an Open Switch.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 18.—The Rock Island passenger train that left Memphis for the west at 11:40 o'clock Saturday night ran into an open switch and collided with a freight engine at Argenta early Sunday morning.

Both engines and several passenger cars were about completely demolished. J. W. Woods, fireman on the passenger train, was instantly killed and twenty-nine others injured, many seriously. Four injured persons may die.

Suspended Bank Resumes Payment.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 18.—The National Exchange bank of this city, which closed its doors six weeks ago on an order from the comptroller of the currency, reopened today as the Merchants' National bank, with a capital of $200,000.

The Weather for Tuesday.

Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; warmer tonight; colder west portion Tuesday.

A BUSINESS HINT.

In matters of business policy, when the leaders of great economical enterprises pursue divergent paths, some pulling this way and some that, the new-comer in the field, seeking to profit by the lessons of experience, may well wonder to which of the irreconcilable courses he should commit himself. But when there is substantial unanimity of opinion among all the mercantile captains—when they all pursue precisely the same policy in some one department of their business—the observer is left in no doubt as to what policy pays.

The display advertisers in the Sedalia field are agreed that the Democrat-Sentinel is the most profitable medium for them to use. They say so in the most emphatic way, by placing more of their advertising in the Democrat-Sentinel than in any other newspaper. Where they tread, others who are just feeling their way may advantageously follow.

PNEUMONIA AND EXCESS.

Men drunk from liquor and men drunk from overeating are most susceptible to pneumonia, said Dr. Evans, Chicago's health commissioner, in an address a day or two ago.

"The majority of cases of pneumonia are of patients who contracted the disease after a drunken debauch or who were drunk from overfeeding," Dr. Evans continued.

"People drunk from overfeeding, I think, are almost as immoral as those who stupefy themselves with liquors. The effects of pneumonia in such patients are much the same."

CHEAPER PAPER COMING.

Can serviceable paper be made from the now wasted stalks of the cotton plant? Can a marketable product be produced at profit considerable enough to invite the manufacture from a raw material that heretofore has been a source only of cost and trouble? Can the annual value of the cotton crop of the country—placed at $640,311,528 in 1907, and supplying two-thirds of the world's cotton—be materially increased, not by further outlay on the part of the grower, but by using the rough stalks, till now got rid of by a direct cost of not a little money and an indirect expense in time and labor?

Since 1908 came in these questions have all been answered in the affirmative by W. H. Croll, now of Atlanta, Ga., but for many years closely identified with the paper industry of Indiana. The gist of the statements which he now declares he is justified in making (for he has busied himself for some time working at the experiments and perfecting the methods which at last have led to his invention), is that from the cotton stalk may be made wrapping paper, print paper and book paper of genuine worth.

It has long been known, continues an article in the Technical World magazine, that all woody fiber is essentially alike, and that all of it is serviceable, in varying degrees, for paper manufacture. One form has been preferred to another only because its reduction and treatment was more convenient or less expensive.

In spite of this academic knowledge, however, any such invention as Mr. Croll announces is of real news value to the world of industry. If the final tests of it, now about to be made on a large scale, demonstrate that he has proceeded beyond mere laboratory trials into methods of practical commercial value.

It would not be easy to magnify the importance of any discovery by which any huge waste is turned into a by-product, yearly representing hundreds of thousands of dollars in value.

FOR OUR FAR-AWAY SOLDIERS.

Almost anybody can contribute materially to the welfare and pleasure of Uncle Sam's soldiers in the Philippines, says the Rochester Chronicle, without cost and at the expenditure of but slight trouble.

One great need of the men in our far away eastern possessions is good reading matter with which to relieve the tedium of their monotonous existence.

There are hundreds of families in Sedalia that can well spare the back numbers of their magazines, illustrated papers and periodicals of various sorts, now stored in attics, closets and trunks, and destined ultimately to go to the rag-man unless better use can be found for them.

There could not be an easier and less expensive way of ministering to the mental refreshment of the men in the army than by providing them with good and entertaining reading matter. Books and magazines have come to be a necessity in every American home. How much more desirable must they be to our men in uniform, far from friends and in strange lands.

Dedicated a College in Georgia.

Athens, Ga., Jan. 18.—With a dedicatory address by Governor Hoke Smith, the new building of the Georgia State College of Agriculture was dedicated today. Chancellor Barrow of the University of Georgia, presided at the exercises.

Addresses were made this afternoon by leading educators, state officials and agricultural authorities. Hundreds of farmers from all over Georgia witnessed the exercises and will participate in the agricultural conference to be held here during the balance of the week.

EDGAR ALLAN POE, POET

HIS CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY
WILL BE OBSERVED
TOMORROW.

DEDICATE BRONZE STATUE IN NEW YORK

Was University of Virginia's Most Celebrated Student. Hence a Two Days' Celebration at Charlottesville.

New York, Jan. 18.—Tomorrow will be the centennial anniversary of the birth of America's master poet, Edgar Allan Poe, and the event will be observed by many metropolitan organizations.

The North Side Board of Trade will issue a commemorative pamphlet, and the Bronx Society of Arts and Sciences is planning an all day program. Its Poe centenary committee has asked the board of education to have readings and recitations from Poe's works in the Morris High school and in the public schools of the Bronx, and to have the public lectures on that evening devoted to Poe. It also plans to dedicate a bronze statue in Poe park, opposite Fordham college, at 11 a. m., and to hold commemorative exercises in the New York University, which is near the Fordham home of Poe, and the Aeneas, which was his favorite walk at 2:30 p. m.

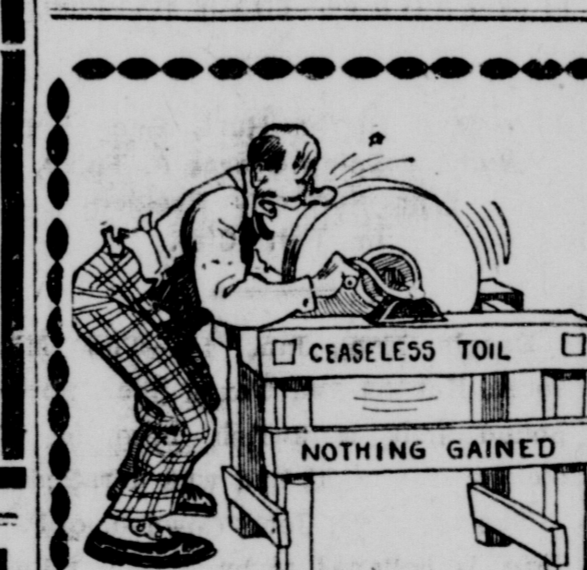

The Author's club intends to hold a memorial meeting on January 28 in honor of Poe. Prof. Trent, of Columbia University, will deliver an address. Friends of the United States Military academy and admirers of Poe are joining to erect, by subscription, in the library of the academy a memorial to Poe near the St. Gaudens memorial to Whistler.

Celebration in Virginia, Too.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 18.—A two days' celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Edgar Allan Poe, the University of Virginia's most celebrated student, was commenced here today. The room on West Range, No. 13, which Poe occupied when last here, has been put in shape for the occasion and is the shrine of many admirers of the great poet. An attempt will be made to make this room a permanent Poe museum.

This morning the guests of the university were taken on a pilgrimage to the Ragged Mountains, about the only spot made famous by his stories, since his genius was independent of locality; and in the afternoon the Ravens, an organization which is made up of students who have won distinction by intellectual achievements during their college careers, will celebrate the occasion with musical and dramatic events with motifs drawn from Poe's lyrics. Tomorrow, the birthday, is, of course, reserved for the strongest features of the program of commemoration. The morning will be devoted to an international celebration.

Poe had just passed his 17th birthday when he arrived at Charlottesville to enter the university, then in its second session. It was mid-winter and the village clustered about the court house could not have been very alluring. A mile away, through thickets and over a rough country road, he reached the university. His love of beauty, if offended by its still raw, ungarlanded grounds, should have been satisfied by the architectural integrity of its buildings.

For a time Poe shared a room on West Lawn with Miles George, also of Richmond. There was a schoolboy fistfight, a handshake in acknowledgment of satisfaction, and Poe went to West Range, set up his household gods and adorned the walls with cartoons in crayon and the ceiling with a charcoal copy of a plate in Byron's poems. According to the memory of men, No. 13 in the block, then known as "Rowdy Row," has been accepted as a shrine. Over its door is a bronze tablet which reads:

EDGAR ALLAN POE.
MDCCCXXVI.

Demus parva magni poetae, following the thought of the epigram on the modest home of the great Erasmus in Rotterdam. Small as was the home in Hoogestraat, that in West Range was smaller—one room, about twelve feet square. The date of the poet's entrance is not known, but his last night there is fixed pretty definitely by the reminiscences of William Wirtenbaker, a fellow student. It was Dec. 20, 1826, that the two, returning from a social gathering at the home of a professor, spent the remainder of the evening in No. 13. Mr. Wirtenbaker believed that this was Poe's last night at the university.

Poe haunted the library as much as the narrow restrictions of that day permitted. For the time it was an excellent collection, for, in spite of the need of money for the buildings and equipments, Mr. Jefferson dealt liberally with this branch of his infant institution. Young Wirtenbaker was in charge, and his record showed that this 17-year-old boy borrowed Rollin's "Historie Ancienne," Robertson's "America," Voltaire's "Historie Particuliere," and Duffie's "Nature Displayed." In addition, he read with his friend, Tucker, Lingard and Hume, and enjoyed a pageantry of the poets from Chaucer to the singer of Abbotsford, the latter just then entering the shadow of the financial eclipse of the publishing house of Constable.

His friend, Tucker, tells of his efforts and successes in writing short stories, which he read in No. 13 to a favored few of his friends, and no doubt the first draft of his first published story, "The Manuscript Found in a Bottle," was made there. More than fifty years after he recalled these readings in the room when Poe, forgetting everything but the story to which he was giving expression, wrought so powerfully on his eager auditors that, it is said, they were afraid to breathe, lest the enchanted spell should be broken. The room, with its fantastically pictured walls, lighted dimly by a candle, and the rapid group of young men, formed a fitting milieu for the histrionism of the strange children of his fancy. Once only he ventured on a story in which there were humorous touches, and no gloom of sear Octobers of bleak Decembers, and he met for the first time flippant and laughing criticism. In sudden anger he cast the manuscript into the fire, where his astonished guests saw it reduced to ashes. Thereafter they called him Gaffey, after the hero of the story.

If the records are silent as to much of Poe's history at the university, they are loquacious of the atmosphere in which he lived. There is preserved at the institution the first volume of the minutes of the faculty, a long, narrow unruled book that tells a vivid story of gambling and drinking and other forbidden practices, but Poe's name is set down only once, and then he appears only as a witness who knows nothing about the case under investigation.

NO "PUFFS," "RATS" OR SILKS

For Girls, Says Bosard, Who Urges Uniform Dress in Schools.

Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 18.—Former State Representative Philip Bosard has prepared a communication which will be submitted at the next meeting of the board of education in the hope that a municipal law will be enacted requiring uniform dress on the part of all school children, especially the girls.

Mr. Bosard claims that "puffs and rats and big sleeves and little waists" should be eliminated from the public schools, as they are "coarse and vulgar," while he designated perforated bosoms as "vile."

"No silks or satins or fancy hats should be allowed in the public schools," asserted Mr. Bosard. "They make their owners proud and haughty."

Mr. Bosard is a firm believer in the separate education of girls and boys.

MRS. MAYBRICK, AGED 47

THE WOMAN WHO SERVED TERM OF 15 YEARS FOR MURDERING HUSBAND.

WAS EDUCATED IN GERMANY AND FRANCE

The Daughter of a Banker at Mobile, Alabama—The Death of Her Husband—Wife Was Arrested and Convicted.

New York, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who served fifteen years in an English prison upon conviction of the murder of her husband, is today 47 years of age. Dates of her birth, as given in various biographical works, are in disagreement, but this date is apparently authentic.

Mrs. Maybrick is a native of Alabama and the daughter of William G. Chandler, a Mobile banker. Her mother was Caroline Elizabeth, daughter of Darius Holbrook, of New York, a close friend and business associate of Cyrus W. Field.

Florence Chandler enjoyed all the refining influences which a rich and indulgent father could bestow. She was educated in Germany and France and travelled extensively. On one of the ocean trips she met James Maybrick, a cotton buyer, twenty-six years her senior, whose home was in Liverpool, but who spent several months each year in Norfolk, Va. They were married in 1880.

Mrs. Maybrick's father died and her mother married the Baron von Roques, an Austrian nobleman, from whom she separated later. The Baroness von Roques visited this country recently in connection with litigation through which lands in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, valued at nearly $50,000, were restored to her and her daughter. Their contention was that they signed away the property formerly belonging to Darius Holbrook while laboring under great mental stress in an English prison.

James Maybrick and his bride lived in Virginia for some time after their marriage and they were accounted a devoted couple, although Mrs. Maybrick was much worried over her husband's appetite for drugs. They moved to Liverpool in 1882, occupying a fine residence called Battlecrease, in the suburbs. A boy was born in 1882 and a girl four years later.

Maybrick suffered from an ailment for which he experimented with various drugs, finally hitting on arsenic as the best fitting his case. Maybrick was taken ill late in April, 1889, and his wife nursed him day and night. He died on May 11, and the two doctors who had been in attendance gave gastroenteritis as the cause of death. When his wife learned of his death she fell in a swoon, which lasted for forty-eight hours. Michael and Edwin Maybrick, the dead man's brothers, informed the police they had been told by servants in the household that Mrs. Maybrick poisoned her brother. A post-mortem examination revealed arsenic.

Mrs. Maybrick's trial was described as one of the most sensational in the annals of English courts. She was condemned to death. This sentence was committed to life imprisonment in Aylesbury prison. Her conviction aroused great indignation on both sides of the Atlantic. Members of the bar present at the trial added their names to a petition bearing 500,000 signatures which begged the crown for a pardon.

Mrs. Maybrick served nearly fifteen years before she was released on "ticket of leave." She arrived in New York on Aug. 23, 1904, six months after her liberation. Since that time she has lectured throughout the country.

Conscience stricken because of Hurd's plight, Cox hurried back to free him at the trial. Hurd was at once discharged and Cox held to answer the charge. So impressed was the audience

A VERY PRETTY WEDDING

MR. PAUL CHALLEN BARBEE
AND MISS CALLIE CLARKE
IN KANSAS CITY.

THE BRIDE WAS A FORMER SEDALIA GIRL

Ceremony Was Performed on the Anniversary of the Marriage of Her Parents—Beautiful Musical Program.

The marriage of a former Sedalia young lady was written of as follows in the Kansas City Journal of Sunday:

The wedding of Miss Callie Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Alexander Clarke, and Mr. Paul Challen Barbee was solemnized last night at 8:30 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. M. Neel.

The church was beautifully decorated with southern smilax, palms, ferns and pink azaleas. A pretty bit of sentiment connected with the wedding was the fact that the date was coincident with the marriage anniversary of the bride's parents.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the bride's home for relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a beautiful robe of cream liberty satin with full court train. The bodice was finished with a bolera of net embroidered in silk with pearl passamenterie. A shower of roses and valley lilies and long bridal veil completed a beautiful costume.

The maid of honor, Miss Florence Wilson, of Springfield, Mo., was gowned in a flowered silk mull made empire, with baby Irish lace yoke and pink silk sash. She carried cream roses.

The maids all wore becoming gowns of natural colored habitat silk, modeled empire, with net yokes and lace trimmings. They wore attractive wreaths of pink satin rose buds in their hair and carried pink roses. They were Miss Jean Clarke, Miss Alleen Bryant, Miss Eva Rue Clarke, Miss Alma Murphy.

The bride's gifts to her maids were gold hairpins and the groom's to his men, matrix scarf pins.

An unusually enjoyable feature of the wedding was the delightful musical program, given before the arrival of the bridal party. "The Bridal Chorus," from the "Rose Maiden," by a double quartette; duet, Nocturn, by Chaminade, Mrs. Baer and Mr. Hudson; "O, Perfect Love," double quartette; duet, Miss Bradley and Mrs. Miller; solo, "Come to Me," Mr. Dudley Eaton, which was followed by the "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, sung by: Miss Alice Bradley, Miss Dorothy Lyle, Mrs. Ernest Baer, Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mrs. Dudley Eaton, Mr. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Jesse Crumpp, Mr. Howard Hudson, Mr. Frank Laufer.

Mrs. E. C. White was in charge of the music, and Mr. C. Olin Rice was at the organ.

Mr. Barbee was attended by Mr. Charles Kemper, and the ushers were:

Mr. Jed Graham, Mr. A. J. Read, Mr. Irving Smith, Mr. Edwin White, Mr. George S. Smith and Mr. Lester Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Barbee left after the informal reception for New York to remain a month.

Out-of-town guests were: Miss Sullivan, aunt of bride, Chicago, Ill.; Miss Florence Wilson, Springfield, Mo.; Mr. Mack D. Looney, Sedalia, Mo.; Mrs. Looney, Miss Elizabeth Shannon, of Warrensburg, Mo.; Mr. F. E. Hoffman, of Sedalia, Mo.; Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. George McLaughlin, of Sedalia, Mo.; Mr. Thornton Greer, of Lamonte, Mo.; Mrs. Greer, Mr. Charles Hall, of New York; Mrs. Hall, Mr. T. James, of New York.

ROCK ROADS IN PETTIS

Good Will Chapel Residents Say They Were Left Out.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

There appeared in the columns of the Democrat-Sentinel of yesterday an article relative to the building of rock roads within the limits of the Sedalia Twelve Mile Rock Road district, and a statement of what had already been done in this regard.

The article in the main is correct and reflects credit upon the gentlemen who have had this work directly in charge. But there is one statement in the article that is incorrect, or at least makes a wrong impression. The erroneous idea held out in this article is that the people from any locality surrounding Sedalia can enjoy the privilege of at least a portion of the rock road on a direct route to Sedalia.

The party writing the article was not correctly informed or either by oversight did not recall that the people southeast of Sedalia in what is known as the Good Will chapel neighborhood do not get to drive over a foot of rock road in going to Sedalia, consequently have not as yet derived any direct pleasure from Sedalia rock road law except to pay taxes for its support.—A Patron of the Unrocked Road.

TAKE ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

Johannes Implement Co. Becomes Part Owner of Regal Buggy Co.

A deal of considerable magnitude has just been closed whereby the Johannes Implement Co. becomes associated in the ownership and management of the Regal Buggy Co.

This is one of the largest vehicle factories in St. Louis, with an annual capacity of 20,000 standard high grade vehicles, 2,000 of which are now being manufactured for the retail trade of the various "Johannes" stores for 1909.

The balance of the factory's output will be marketed in the regular wholesale way throughout the United States.

John M. Johannes, of this city, becomes vice president and western sales manager of the Regal Buggy Co., and will have headquarters in Sedalia. Mr. Johannes says the Regal company was the vehicle sensation of 1908, having increased their business over 125 per cent, while the other factories were working only half time.

HATS WILL BE HIGHER

As a Result of the Present Strike of the Hatters.

New York, Jan. 18.—The open shop and a fight to the finish was the action decided upon by the Hat Manufacturers' association at a meeting held here Sunday to discuss the situation growing out of the strike of the hatters, which began Friday.

An effect of the strike, according to the manufacturers, will be a rise in the price of hats, as the trouble occurred in the busy season.

LEFT ON HER DOORSTEP FOR THIS MOTHER

Mrs. A. G. Tuson, of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which I soon became very much interested. My little girl of five years of age had been troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all run-down and in a very delicate condition. 'This little book was very comprehensively written, and told of the new method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the oil, eliminating the obnoxious oil which is so hard for children to take. 'Just the thing,' said I, 'for my little daughter,' and I immediately went for a bottle of Vinol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in flesh and strength, and she does not take cold half so easily. 'I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope other mothers who have weak, delicate or ailing children will be benefited by my experience and just give Vinol a trial.' VINOL is sold in Sedalia by the W. E. BARD DRUG CO.

CRIMINAL COURT DOINGS

The A. H. Ray Murder Case Was Set Today for April 5.

Edward Travis and Sadie Moss, negroes, were given two and three years, respectively, for larceny from the person in night time by Criminal Judge Hoffman today, after withdrawing their plea of not guilty and entering a plea of guilty. The complaining witness was Floyd Quick.

Later, Judge Hoffman, at the solicitation of C. C. Kelly, the prisoners' attorney, paroled both on a $500 parole bond, with the distinct understanding that neither be caught in a saloon again or caught running the streets after dark.

Alvin H. Ray, charged with murdering John W. O'Neill, was arraigned, and the case was specifically set for Monday, April 5. A special venire of thirty-six jurors was ordered in addition to the regular panel.

Walker Bird was fined $15 and costs for common assault on John Buckner.

A ROBBER KILLED AN IOWAN

In Act of Handing Over His Money a Union Man Was Shot.

Union, Ia., Jan. 18.—While handing money to a robber, L. Trimbull, a restaurant keeper, was shot twice through the head and instantly killed Saturday night.

Mr. Trimbull had been counting his cash when a pistol was thrust into his face by an unknown man, who demanded money.

Trimbull gave up his silver and was about to hand over his bills when the robber fired. A posse is searching for the murderer.

RABBITS ONE CENT EACH

Over 250,000 Were Killed in the Ozarks Last Week.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 18.—More than 250,000 rabbits were shipped from here to St. Louis, New Orleans and Memphis markets during the past week, the snow that fell last Monday causing such an unusual slaughter of cottontails in the Ozarks that rabbits were sold here at 1 cent each.

The glut in the market and the forecast of warmer weather caused the price to decline.

Barbers Taking Examinations.

Six applicants to become licensed barbers are taking an examination before the state board of examining barbers at the "O K" barber shop today. C. T. Whisman, president of the board, is conducting the examination and is assisted by G. D. Marks, of Kansas City. W. L. Mack, of St. Joseph, a third member of the board, will be here late this afternoon.

The board is in receipt of communications from deputies of the twenty-eight cities in this jurisdiction, and every report shows that the tunsorial shops are in a more flourishing condition than ever before.

SURPRISE FOR A PRIEST

SECRETS OF THE CONFESSIONAL HANDLED HIM BY WILL J. HANNEGAN.

THE STORY IS ALMOST BEYOND BELIEF

Greatest Secret of Catholic Church Made Public—The Document Was Destroyed Without Moment's Delay.

St. Louis, Jan. 18.—Will J. Hannegan, whose psychic revelations have astonished the scientific world, and caused a storm of ridicule and wonder wherever the reports of the strange happenings in the family circle of Jordan W. Lambert, millionaire manufacturer, dilettante and philanthropist, were read of, is to be publicly defended by Prof. George C. Hyslop, president of the American Association for Psychic Research, who will take up the cudgels in Hannegan's defense from the lecture platform here, and will answer any and all questions that may be propounded to him by the scoffers and unbelievers.

One of the latest of Hannegan's weird experiments has confounded a Catholic priest, who until a few days ago was a scoffer, but in a friendly way.

A few days ago he met Mr. Lambert upon the street and upon his invitation accompanied him home. Just as they entered the room where Hannegan and Mrs. Lambert were seated, Hannegan was seized with a psychic spell, and, with his eyes closed, began to write in a strange hand.

The writing suddenly stopped, and, without cessation, Hannegan folded the paper and marked it "Father —" Thinking that they might be perpetrating a joke, the priest took the sheet, unfolded it, suddenly paled, put his hand to his eyes after reading a part of the document.

"This is the strangest thing that I have ever seen or heard of. The greatest secret of any in the Catholic faith," he said, still white and shaking, "is the confessional, and here I find all the secrets of today's confessional written out in full. It is impossible for any person to invade the confessional and hear any of the confessions made there, and I am dumfounded by this revelation."

The document was immediately destroyed, no one except the priest having any knowledge of its contents. Hannegan told the three that he could not tell why he had written what he did, and did not know from where it came. The priest has made an affidavit of the occurrence, but his name will not appear in connection with it.

MRS. BURTNER IS 91 TODAY

Four Generations Are Present at the Celebration.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burtner, who makes her home with her granddaughter, Mrs. Albert Clark, 237 South Stewart street, is today celebrating the 91st anniversary of her birth, and a singular incident in connection with the celebration is that four generations are participating.

The four generations are: Mrs. Burtner; her daughter, Mrs. Clara Smith; the latter's daughter, Mrs. Clark, and Mrs. Clark's 5-year-old son, Wilbur Clark.

A family dinner was served at the noon hour, among the out-of-town guests present being Mrs. John Stevenson and daughter, of Clarksburg. Mrs. Ziba Smith, of Tipton, arrived in the afternoon to take part in the celebration.

TO KNOW

How the eyesight should be tested is one thing; to have the necessary expertise to do it right is something entirely different. Many men fitting eyes today for glasses, some of them supposedly competent, are not expert in their work because they lack practice. When you want a pair of glasses you should not go to one that makes a side line of the business and a pair of glasses occasionally, or picks them out of a basket and lets you fit yourself. We have made a life study of this business and will fit you correctly.

MAN KILLED HIS FAMILY

MR. W. L. SEELEY IN SEATTLE MURDERS WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

HUSBAND AND FATHER THEN SUICIDED

The Three Bodies Were Found in a Bathroom by the Young Woman's Fiance—The Family Formerly Lived in St. Joe.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 18.—W. L. Seeley, an attorney and former national bank examiner for Illinois under Jas. H. Eckles, his wife, Mrs. Kate M. Seeley, a member of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and his daughter, Miss Rene Seeley, a student at the University of Washington and a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, were found dead in a bathroom of their home, 307 Eighteenth avenue, in the fashionable Capital Hill district, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. They had been dead since last Thursday. The women, each of whom were clad in night robes, had been murdered, evidently by being struck on the head with a hammer.

There was no mark of violence on Seeley. He is believed to have been partly chloroformed and then drowned in the bathtub. All three were kneeling at the side of the bathtub with their heads submerged in water. That Seeley killed his wife and daughter while insane over financial worries and then committed suicide is the theory of the coroner and the police. He was clothed in his underwear, shoes and trousers. His nightgown, which was blood stained, was found beneath a pillow in the room occupied by him and his wife.

Seeley came here less than two years ago from St. Joseph, Mo., where he was engaged in the stock business. He had lived there two years and had moved there from Ottawa, Ill. Seeley was 55 years old, his wife about three years younger and his daughter 22.

The bodies were found by Guy M. Smelzer, Miss Seeley's fiance, and E. R. Seibbel, a friend of the family. The family could not be communicated with after 9 o'clock Thursday night, when Smelzer talked over the telephone with Miss Seeley. The only live thing on the place was a black cat, which was locked in the basement.

Although keeping up the appearance of prosperity, Seeley had been forced to borrow money for his last month's house rent from W. W. Wiltshire, an attorney from whom he rented desk room in the New York building.

Detectives searched the house for weapons with which the murders had been committed, but were unable to find any. No article of jewelry or anything of value was taken from the house. Every window and door was found locked.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

WHO IS BACK OF ACTION?

UNITED STATES NOT LIKELY PLAINTIFF AGAINST THE
NEW YORK WORLD.

MAY HAVE BEEN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Washington Divided by Question—
Can Government Prosecute Criminal Libel Suit?—Might Be Cromwell or Robinson.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The latest and most interesting suggestion regarding Saturday's sensational developments involving the service of subpoenas upon newspaper men in this city and elsewhere, is that an individual and not the United States government is the plaintiff in the case.

It is true that the subpoenas here read "the United States government vs. the Press Publishing Co." But if the proposed action is criminal, as is generally assumed to be the case, that would be the form of subpoena, even were an individual the complainant, according to the practice in the District of Columbia.

The identity of this individual or individuals is purely a matter of speculation, for the public will have to await the issuance of the promised statement of Attorney General Bonaparte, in a day or two, to get an accurate understanding of this remarkable case.

Possibly President Roosevelt himself is the complainant; or it may be that the action was begun by William Nelson Cromwell, or by Douglas Robinson or by any of the persons named in the original newspaper publications in an individual way. A significant fact is that Mr. Cromwell was in Washington when the action was taken Saturday of serving the subpoenas.

Washington lawyers are discussing the case with interest and already differences of opinion appear as to the right of the United States government to prosecute a criminal libel proceeding against either an individual or a newspaper, which is after all the bone of contention, for there can be no question of the right of an individual to bring such an action.

It is pointed out that the supreme court is on record as denying the power of a United States circuit court to take jurisdiction in a criminal libel case.

AGAINST SALARY INCREASES

Simple Life in the White House Brings Best Results.

Washington, Jan. 18.—An amendment in the legislative, executive and judiciary appropriation bill increasing the salary of the president to $100,000, of the vice president and speaker of the house of representatives to $20,000, with $5,000 additional allowance for carriages and coachmen for the vice president and the speaker, and increases for the judiciary aggregating $328,500, precipitated a lively discussion in the senate.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, who is against the increases, made a point of order against them on the ground that they involve general legislation, which, according to the rules of the senate, can not be placed on an appropriation bill in the face of a single objection.

Without concluding the debate, further consideration of the amendments was postponed until next Monday.

Senator Clay, of Georgia, insisted that he had no feeling against the newly elected president, but he believed the time had come when congress should clear these expenditures.

"If the president were called upon to pay all these expenses," said Mr. Clay, "$200,000 a year would not be too much."

The president, he said, should have enough salary to live in dignity, but he was convinced that sumptuous living would not redound to the benefit of the country.

"The simple life," he said, "plain

STATEWIDE PROHIBITION

Only Three St. Louis Divines Advocated It Sunday.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 18.—Although only three St. Louis pastors, who announced their decision Saturday, spoke Sunday for submission of statewide prohibition to people of Missouri, Mrs. F. H. Ingalls, chairman of the state W. C. T. U. legislative committee, expect many St. Louis ministers will talk on this subject next Sunday.

Mrs. Ingalls said: "We have written to all churches in St. Louis, asking the pastors to devote their services to the interest of state wide prohibition. We requested that our letters be acknowledged so we might know what support and assistance the churches would give. But three replies were received.

"Despite the failures of the ministers to respond to our letters of appeal, we are in hopes of receiving their support and co-operation throughout the city and state."

JEWISH COUNCIL MEETS

UNION OF AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS IN SESSION IN GOTHAM.

GENERAL MEETING WILL OPEN TOMORROW

At That Time Sixteen Important Reports Will Be Presented and Discussed—Name New Executive Board.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—Leaders of the Jewish faith from all over the United States and Canada are the guests of the Quaker City today at the opening of the twenty-first council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Meetings of the executive board of the union and similar boards of other national Jewish organizations were held this afternoon in the rooms of the Mercantile club and will be continued this evening. The general session will open tomorrow with an address by the president of the union, Louis J. Goldman. Pronounced opposition to enforced observance of Sunday as the Sabbath and to sectarian teachings in the public schools of the country will be expressed in resolutions and reports to be presented tomorrow.

At the session tomorrow afternoon, sixteen important reports will be presented and discussed, as follows:

1. How may the number of students at the Hebrew Union college be increased?
2. Shall the Hebrew Union college add to its curriculum a normal class for teachers?
3. How shall the funds be procured for the erection of new college buildings?
4. What shall be done toward organizing for Jewish purposes the Jewish students in our universities and colleges?
5. What can be done to improve "Young Israel" and increase its circulation?
6. Shall the Sabbath school leaflets be revised and extended?
7. What steps shall be taken to increase the income of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations by obtaining additional individual subscriptions?
8. What can be done to prevent the enactment of Sunday laws in so far as such laws are detrimental to those who observe the seventh day of the week as their Sabbath?
9. What can be done to prevent sectarian teaching and practices in public schools?
10. What shall be done to induce the United States to prevent foreign governments from discriminating against citizens of the United States because of their religion?
11. How many Jewish congregations in small communities be assisted in their organization?
12. What shall be done toward affiliating with the Union of American Hebrew congregations, Jewish congregations, outside of the limits of the United States?
13. Shall the Isaac M. Wise Memorial fund national committee be continued, and if so, what steps should be taken to increase its sphere of usefulness?
14. Is it advisable to amend Section 9 of the constitution so as to eliminate therefrom the sectional provisions?
15. Where shall the meeting of the 22d council be held?
16. Nominations for 30 members of the executive board.

Who Can Afford to Miss This, Our Greatest January Clearing Sale?

To put it mildly, this sale is unusual to the extent that it will pay you to fill your future needs—not alone present ones. We are willing to take a loss on our stocks in these January Clearances that next season all lines will be fresh and the business gained then will easily offset the loss now. Our stocks are, of course, practically new and fresh, being all this season's goods. Surely everything ought to be eagerly picked up by prudent women at these low Clearance prices

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 55.

Have you noticed the number of vagabonds applying to your back door here lately? If you have NOT, feed the next one and you will notice a very decided increase in the next day or so. It seems they put each other "next" and then they come thick and fast. Recently one of these parties applied at a home on West Fifth street. The man of the house was just leaving to go up town, and he thought he would just note where the beggar went. He turned north on Missouri avenue, went over to Fourth street and met a confederate at Fourth and Missouri avenue, then he went up Fourth to Vermont and north, then to Third street, and at Third and Vermont he met TWO of his gang, and the THREE went north to Second and Kentucky, and north on Kentucky to Main and into a saloon. The party following them went up Main to Ohio and back up Ohio to his office. Many good true women think they are doing kind acts of charity in feeding these men. When they rustle up money for the saloon and then have to beg to EAT we fail to see but what the ladies are handing their money over to the saloon keeper.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

RIO GRANDE SHOPMEN RETURN TO WORK IN SHOPS AT PUEBLO.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Machinists and boilermakers of the shops of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad returned to work at Pueblo, Colo., Saturday after being out on strike ten months.

Those who had remained in and about Pueblo took their old places, while those who have gone elsewhere are given fifteen days in which to return.

From what can be gathered from the outside the adjustment of differences is a compromise, both sides making concessions.

There are intimations, however, that the Denver and Rio Grande is no longer in position to be altogether independent on any question, being now practically a link in the Missouri Pacific chain.

Talk of a Motor Line. Capitalists at Great Bend, Kas., are figuring on the installation of an electric service between there and Hoisington, with the installation of an immense plant at Great Bend.

This may amount to the building and equipping of an electric line or the installing of motor service on the Missouri Pacific branch line between Great Bend and Hoisington, a ten-mile road.

Wanted to Borrow Men.

The Missouri Pacific railway is in need of brakemen and firemen—experienced men, so it is needless for inexperienced hands or "scissors-bills" to apply. Saturday the local was annulled on account of no crew, and
